TWO EMPLOYEES FORGE MEDICAL FORMS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2014
CASE OIG-I-2014-520 AND OIG -I-2014-519

We conducted two separate investigations on employees who reportedly forged "Treating Physician Medical Status Report Statement of Disability" forms. One employee, a customer service representative, submitted the form to allow the employee to return from a medical leave of absence. The employee admitted forging the form and voluntarily resigned. The second employee, an assistant passenger conductor, submitted the form to extend a medical leave of absence. The employee voluntarily resigned.
