CASE OIG-I-2014-505

Our investigation disclosed that an Amtrak cashier pocketed some cash deposits. This cashier was responsible for reconciling cash deposits from lead service attendants upon completion of their run. This employee was sporadically absent from work and resigned when asked to take a drug test. After being arrested, the employee pled guilty and was sentenced to a 180 day suspended sentence, 3 years of probation, and also was ordered to pay $10,871 in restitution.
