Proactive Efforts Regarding Medical Leave of Absence
Case Number 08-141
December 8, 2010

The Office of Inspector General (“OIG”) Office of Investigations, in conjunction with Amtrak’s Health Services Department, conducted a proactive initiative involving employees on Medical Leave of Absence (“MLOA”). The initiative was designed to identify those employees who were abusing the MLOA process.

As a result of this joint venture, Amtrak benefited from a cost savings of $87,486 as a result of 63 employees returning to work. An additional 34 employees were terminated by Management.
