

AMTRAK EMPLOYEE USES FALSE SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER
MARCH 11, 2013
CASE # PA-13-0047

An Amtrak employee used a false social security number to obtain employment as an Assistant Conductor. An OIG investigation revealed that the employee was not currently a United States citizen, nor was she at the time she was hired, and that the social security number was not valid. The employee voluntarily resigned after being formally charged with violating Amtrak's Standards of Excellence.
